Description:

Valk and Schenk's map of the region around Edinburgh.

The map lists hundreds of small towns and shows mountains, rivers, glens, firths, lochs, and many other features.

In the upper-right corner is the coat of arms of Scotland.

This map represents a later state of a map of the same name first published by Jan Jansson sometime around 1646. Jansson published a series of maps of the British regions, which were based on the most accurate sources at the time.

Detailed Condition:

A few faint spots of soiling, but overall VG+
