Description:

Striking and highly detailed map of Asia Minor, the Black Sea, and Cyprus extending east to Kurdistan.

The map shows the extent of Turkey/the Ottoman Empire in Asia. There is a significant amount of information included throughout the map. Major cities such as Jerusalem, Constantinople, and Antioch are shown. The depicted detail continues with the inclusion of several locations that are not as relevant like the El Come Hot Spring, the Sinosela Mine of Salt, and even the rough location of the Battle of Gaugamela (Arbela) where Alexander the Great conquered the Persian Empire. These additional inclusions make for a much more robust and interesting map as one can see not only the many settlements, roads, and waterways of the region, but also historical sites of places of industry and leisure.

Colored by provinces. Excellent detail throughout.

Detailed Condition:

Folds, as issued. Some offsetting where folded. Minor foxing. Slight wear and toning along the neatlines.
